

B I N G O

Giving tree: Donate something you no longer use or wear	Book set outside the U.S.	Book you learned about through the library	Bestselling book	Graphic novel
Book with a one-word title	Book you've been meaning to read for years	Lead the way: Encourage your workplace or organization to make an eco-friendly change	Book translated from another language	Book that keeps you on the edge of your seat
Book with an element of magic	Book you chose because you liked the cover	 READER'S CHOICE	Book someone recommended to you	Reduce waste: Say "no thank you" to something you don't need, like a bag, straw, or plastic utensils
Book by a person of color	Buzzing around: Plant flowers that attract bees and other pollinators	Book about climate change	Book outside your comfort zone	Book with a brightly-colored cover
Book you chose because you liked the cover	Book about climate change	Book that won an award	Raindrops on roses: Collect rainwater and use it to water your plants	Magazine or newspaper

This year's Summer Reading Program focuses on animals, the environment, and sustainability

Rules: Fill in the titles of books you've read this summer, or check off activities you've completed. Score BINGO by filling five squares in a row in any direction. Return your entry to the library or e-mail a picture to cmanning@topfieldlibrary.org. One random winner will receive gift cards to Richardson's Ice Cream and Golf Country! Deadline is August 13th. Limit of two entries per person. Ages 18+ only.

Name:

Phone or Email:

